

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

For the years ended 31 March 2002 and 2001

1. Basis of Presenting Consolidated Financial Statements

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared based on the accounts and records maintained by THE NIPPON ROAD CO., LTD.(the “Company) and its consolidated subsidiaries (hereinafter referred to in total as the "Companies") in accordance with the provisions set forth in the Commercial Code of Japan and the Securities and Exchange Law, and in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles and practices prevailing in Japan, which are different in certain respects from the application and disclosure requirements of International Accounting Standards.

Certain items presented in the consolidated financial statements submitted to the Director of Kanto Finance Bureau in Japan have been reclassified for the convenience of readers outside Japan.

The consolidated financial statements are not intended to present the consolidated financial position, results of operations and cash flows in accordance with accounting principles and practices generally accepted in countries and jurisdictions other than Japan.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(1) Principles of Consolidation

As at 31 March 2002, the consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its 38 (2001: 9) subsidiaries (36 domestic subsidiaries and 2 overseas subsidiaries). During the year ended March 31, 2002, 29 subsidiaries, which had been excluded from the consolidation previously, were included since they are now deemed to be significant. All assets and liabilities of consolidated subsidiaries are revalued to fair market value as of the date of establishment of control. Any difference between the cost of an investment in a subsidiary and the amount of underlying equity in net assets of the subsidiary, if any at the date of establishment of control, has been expensed when incurred as such difference was minor. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions and unrealized profit among the Companies, if any, have been eliminated on consolidation.

The unconsolidated subsidiaries and affiliates would have not have a material effect on the Consolidated Financial Statements of the Companies and therefore have been excluded from consolidation. Those companies are not accounted for using the equity method for the same reason described above.

Overseas consolidated subsidiaries have adopted accounting principles generally accepted in their respective countries and no adjustment have been made to their financial statements on consolidation, as allowed under accounting principles and practices generally accepted in Japan. In addition, the financial statements of two overseas subsidiaries (Nippon Road (M) Sdn. Bhd. and Thai Nippon Road Co., Ltd) are prepared on a calendar year basis. Significant transactions that occurred between January 1 and March 31 are reflected in the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

(2) Securities Valuation

Securities held by the Company and its subsidiaries are classified into three categories;

a) Held-to-maturity debt securities, that the Company and its subsidiaries intend to hold to maturity, are stated at cost after accounting for any premium or discount on acquisition, which is amortized over the period to maturity.

b) Investments of the Company in equity securities issued by unconsolidated subsidiaries and affiliates are valued at the cost, cost being determined by the moving average method.

c) Other securities for which market quotations are stated at fair value.

Other securities for which market quotations are unavailable are valued at cost, cost being determined by the moving average method.

(3) Inventory Valuation

Inventories are classified into three categories:

- a) Cost on uncompleted construction contracts and b) other inventories
: Cost being determined by the job order costing method
- c) Raw materials and supplies: Cost being determined by the moving average method

(4) Tangible Fixed Assets

The acquisition costs of tangible fixed assets, excluding leased assets, are depreciated using the declining-balance method over the estimated useful lives at the balance sheet date.

Leased assets are depreciated using the straight-line method over the lease term.

Normal repairs and maintenance including minor renewals and improvements are charged to income as incurred.

(5) Intangible Assets

Amortization of intangible assets and long-term prepaid expenses included in "Other Assets" is computed using the straight-line method, over a period prescribed by the Japanese tax laws.

Software costs for internal use are amortized over their expected useful lives (less than 5 years) on a straight-line basis.

Research and development costs incurred for specific projects in search of new products and new technology are charged to income as incurred.

(6) Reserves and Allowances

(i) Allowance for doubtful accounts

The Company and its domestic subsidiaries provided an allowance for doubtful accounts at an amount equivalent to the maximum limit allowed for deduction under the Japanese income tax law, in addition to the amount of potential losses from irrecoverable receivables based on management's estimate.

The foreign consolidated subsidiaries provided for potential losses from irrecoverable receivables based on management's estimate.

(ii) Warranty Reserve for completed construction contracts

A warranty reserve for completed construction contracts is provided at an estimated amount, based on the actual level of defects and related warranty costs found on completed construction contracts.

(iii) Reserve for retirement benefits

(a) Retirement Benefits to Employees

A reserve for retirement benefits to employees is provided at an amount equal to the present value of the projected benefit obligation less the fair value of the plan assets at the year-end.

Unrecognized actuarial differences are amortized on a straight-line basis over 13 years from the year after they occur.

(b) Special reserve for early retirement benefits to employees

The Company provided for the retirement allowance to be paid to the employees who responded to the resolution asking for voluntary retirement at the board of directors' meeting on March 29, 2002.

(c) Retirement Benefits to the Directors and Corporate Auditors

The Company and its subsidiaries have provided for the accrued cost of retirement benefits payable to the Directors and Corporate Auditors at an amount equivalent to 100 per cent. of such benefits that the Company and subsidiaries would be required to pay, had all eligible Directors and Corporate Auditors retired at the year-end date.

(7) Translation of Foreign Currency

All monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies, whether long-term or short-term, are translated into Japanese yen at the exchange rate prevailing at the balance sheet date. Resulting gains and losses are included in net profit or loss for the period.

Assets and liabilities of the foreign subsidiaries and affiliates are translated into Japanese yen at exchange rates prevailing at the balance sheet date. Shareholder's equity at the beginning of the year is translated into Japanese yen at the historical rates. Profit and loss accounts for the year are translated into Japanese yen using the exchange rates prevailing at the balance sheet date. Differences in yen amounts arising from the use of different rates are presented as "foreign currency translation adjustments" in the shareholders' equity.

(8) Accounting for Leases

Leases that transfer substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the assets are accounted for as capital leases, except those leases, which do not transfer ownership of the assets at the end of the lease term, which are accounted for as operating leases, in accordance with accounting principles and practices generally accepted in Japan.

(9) Hedge Accounting

The derivatives designated as hedging instruments by the Company are principally foreign exchange contracts and interest swaps for future transactions and borrowings denominated in foreign currency. The Companies have a policy to utilize hedging instruments in order to reduce the Companies' risk of fluctuation in interest and exchange rates. Therefore, the Companies' purchases of the hedging instruments are limited to, at maximum, the amounts of the hedged items.

Gains or losses from changes in the fair value of the derivatives designated as “hedging instruments” are deferred as an asset or liability and included in net income for the same year during which the gains or losses on the hedged items or transactions are recognized. However, interest rate swaps, if they meet conditions for hedge accounting and their nominal amount, terms on interest and contract period are substantially the same as those of hedged items, are not valued at fair value, but are accrued net of the swap interests paid and received.

The Companies evaluate the effectiveness of its hedging activities by the level of co-relationship in fluctuation of market value of hedged items and hedging instruments accumulated from the commencement of the hedges to the point of evaluation of its effectiveness. However, the Company does not evaluate effectiveness of hedging activities by interest rate swaps, which meets the condition described above.

(10) Revenues Recognition

The Company and its domestic consolidated subsidiaries adopt the completion method in recognition of revenues and costs relating to all construction contracts. The foreign consolidated subsidiaries adopt the percentage of completion method.

(11) Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents in the consolidated statements of cash flows are composed of cash in hand, bank deposits able to be withdrawn on demand and short-term investments with an original maturity of three months or less and which represent a minor risk of fluctuations in value.

(12) Accounting for Consumption Tax

Consumption tax is imposed at the flat rate of 5% on all domestic consumption of goods and services (with certain exemptions).

The consumption tax withheld upon sale and consumption tax paid by the Companies on their purchases of goods and services is not included in the amounts of respective revenue and cost or expense items in the accompanying consolidated statements of income. The consumption tax withheld and consumption tax paid are recorded as assets or liabilities and the net balance is included in "Notes and accounts payables - Other" of the consolidated balance sheets at 31 March 2002 and 2001.

(13) Income Taxes

Income taxes of the Company and its domestic subsidiaries consist of corporate income taxes, local inhabitants taxes and enterprise taxes.

From the beginning of the year ended 31 March 2000, the Company and its subsidiaries adopted deferred tax accounting in accordance with the amended regulations for preparation of consolidated financial statements. Income taxes were determined using the asset and liability approach, whereby deferred tax assets and liabilities were recognized in respect of temporary differences between the tax basis of assets and liabilities and those as reported in the consolidated financial statements. The cumulative effect of adopting deferred tax accounting at 1 April 1999 was charged directly to retained earnings.

(14) Appropriation of Retained Earnings

Under the Japanese Commercial Code and the Articles of Incorporation of the Company, the appropriation of retained earnings proposed by the Board of Directors is subject to approval by the shareholders at a meeting which must be held within three months of the end of each financial year. The appropriations of retained earnings reflected in the accompanying consolidated financial statements include the results of such appropriations applicable to the immediately preceding financial year as approved at the shareholders' meeting, and effected, during the relevant year. Dividends are paid to shareholders on the shareholders' register as at the end of each financial year. As is customary practice in Japan, the payment of bonuses to directors and corporate auditors is made out of retained earnings through an appropriation, instead of being charged to the income of the year. The Japanese Commercial Code provides that interim cash dividends may be paid as a part of the annual dividend upon approval by the Board of Directors. The Company does not pay such interim dividends to its shareholders.

(15) Legal Reserves

Additional paid-in capital, recorded pursuant to the Japanese Commercial Code, primarily consists of proceeds on issuance of shares of common stock of the Company that were not recorded as "common stock" (Under the Japanese Commercial Code, the Company is allowed to account for an amount not exceeding one-half of the issue price of new shares as additional paid-in capital.) Capital reserve may be transferred to other additional paid in capital to the extent that the sum of additional paid-in capital and earned reserve (collectively, "legal reserves") does not fall below 25% of stated capital. However, additional paid-in capital may not be transferred to retained earnings.

The Japanese Commercial Code requires all the Companies to appropriate as an earned reserve an amount equivalent to at least 10% of cash payments for appropriation of retained earnings until the legal reserves equals 25% of stated capital. The earned reserve may be transferred to unappropriated retained earnings to the extent that the legal reserves do not fall below 25% of stated capital.

Legal reserves may be transferred to stated capital through suitable directors' actions or offset against deficit through suitable shareholders' actions.

(16) Earnings Per Share

The computation of basic net income per common share is based on the weighted average number of outstanding shares of common stock. The average number of shares used in the computation was 97,616,187 for the both years ended 31 March 2002 and 2001.

(17) Reclassification

Certain prior year figures are reclassified to conform to the current year presentation.

3. United States Dollar Amounts

Amounts in U.S. dollars are included solely for the convenience of readers outside Japan. The rate of ¥133.25=U.S. $1, the approximate rate of exchange prevailing at 31 March 2002 has been used in translation. The inclusion of such amounts are not intended to imply that Japanese yen have been or could be readily converted, realized or settled in U.S. dollars at this rate or any other rates.

4. Cash and Cash Equivalents

	¥11,054	$82,957

7. Income Taxes

The Company and its domestic subsidiaries are subject to several taxes based on income, which in the aggregate resulted in the statutory tax rate of approximately 42.05% for the years ended 31 March 2002 and 2001. Foreign subsidiaries are subject to income taxes of the countries in which they operate.

At 31 March 2002 and 2001, significant components of deferred tax assets and liabilities were as follows:

31 March 2002	Millions of Yen	Thousands of U.S. Dollars

In assessing the realizability of deferred tax assets, management of the Company considers whether it is more likely than not that some portion will not be realized. The ultimate realization of deferred tax assets is entirely dependent on the generation of future taxable income in specific tax jurisdictions during the periods in which those temporary differences become deductible. Although realization is not assured, management considered the projected future taxable income in making this assessment. Based on these factors, management believes it is more likely than not the Company will realize the benefit of these deductible differences, net of the existing valuation allowances as of 31 March 2002.

At 31 March 2002, the difference between the statutory tax rate and the effective tax rate was not shown because the Companies resulted in loss position in the year ended March 31, 2002.

8. Leases

The Companies use certain machinery, equipment and other fixed assets under the finance lease contracts. Information regarding the leased assets such as acquisition cost, accumulated depreciation and future minimum lease payments under finance leases that do not transfer the ownership of the leased property to the lessee for the years ended 31 March 2002 and were as follows:

31 March 2002	Millions of Yen			Thousands of U.S. Dollars

Due over one year	5,257	4,596	39,452
	¥8,062	¥7,246	$60,503

9. Derivative and Hedging Activities

The Companies use forward currency exchange contracts to hedge against the exchange rate risk associated with monetary receivables and payables denominated in foreign currencies. Interest rate swap transactions and interest rate cap transactions are used in order to minimize the risk of fluctuation in interest rates on borrowings.

The Companies have established a control environment which includes policies and procedures for risk assessments and for the approval, reporting and monitoring of transactions involving derivative financial instruments. The Companies do not hold or issue derivative financial instruments for trading purposes.

The Companies are exposed to certain market risks arising from their forward exchange contracts and swap agreements. The Companies are also exposed to the risk of credit loss in the event of non-performance by the counterparties to the currency and interest; however, the Companies do not anticipate nonperformance by any of these counterparties all of whom are financial institutions with high credit ratings.

At 31 March 2002, outstanding interest rate swap agreements were as follows:

For the year ended 31 March 2002	Millions of Yen
	Notional Amount	Unrealized Gain
Interest-rate swap agreements:
Valuable-rate into fixed-rate Obligations.....	¥2,000	¥ (129)

For the year ended 31 March 2002	Thousands of U.S. Dollars
	Notional Amounts	Unrealized Gain
Interest-rate swap agreements:
Valuable-rate into fixed-rate Obligations.....	$15,009	$(968)

10. Retirement Benefits

The Company and its domestic consolidated subsidiaries operate severance payment plan and qualified pension plan. Furthermore, an additional payment can be allowed for the certain case. 25 of domestic consolidated subsidiaries participate in another type of contributory severance payment plan, operated by two independent pension plans.

1) Reserve for retirement benefits as at March 31, 2002 and 2001 are summarized as follows:

31 March	Millions of Yen		Thousand of U.S. dollars (Note 3)
	2002	2001	2002
Projected benefit obligations	¥ (16,310)	¥ (15,709)	$ (122,413)

Amortization of unrecognized actuarial differences	30	-	225
	¥ 893	¥ 849	$ 6,707

Note) Service cost includes net periodic pension expense incurred by certain consolidated subsidiaries which adopt the simple method for calculation of projected benefit obligations.

3) Assumptions used in calculation of the above information:

	2002	2001
Method of attributing the projected benefits to period of service s	Benefit/year of service approach	Benefit/ year of service approach
Discount rate	2.5%	3.0%
Expected rate of return	2.5%	2.5%

11. Contingent Liabilities and Commitments

1) As at 31 March 2002, the Companies other than consolidated companies are contingently liable for guarantees as follows:

31 March 2002	Millions of Yen	Thousands of U.S. Dollars
Guarantees of loans from banks	¥ 59	$ 443

2) The Company and Nippon Road (M) Sdn. Bhd. had total ¥4,664 million ($35,006 Thousand) of overdraft contracts and credit lines from two banks to facilitate efficient funds. Unutilized portion was ¥4,315 million ($32,385 Thousand) as of March 31, 2002.

3) Litigation

With regard to the compensation for loss court case, which the company has been litigated by the client due to the company performance on the earth work of housing development contract from 1976 to 1981, the first judgement was given by Otsu regional court on March 30, 1998, which decided the company to discharge 1943million yen, includes interests, as a compensation. The company appealed of dissatisfaction to the Osaka high court, and on March 28, 2002, second finding, for which the company discharges 285million yen that is inclusive of interests, as a compensation money to the client, was given. The client protested against a decision and appealed to the Supreme Court.

12. Subsequent Events

The appropriation of retained earnings of the Company, including cash dividends applicable to the year ended 31 March 2002, which was proposed by the Board of Directors and approved at the shareholders' meeting held on 27 June 2002, was for the purpose of paying cash dividends to shareholders of record at 31 March 2002, in the aggregate amount of ¥488 million ($3,663 thousand) (¥5 per share). Bonuses to directors were not proposed.
